

Why do you think this picture is called a “Still Life”?

What can you see?

Is this an example of OBSERVATION or IMAGINATION?
Discuss.

If you had to pair this picture with ONE other from the pack,
which ONE would you choose? Why is this?

Which other pictures are similar to this one? Give reasons for your
choices.

List objects you would put in your own personal still life
arrangement (composition) in order of importance. What does
each object represent?

Create a “Still Life in a Box” using a shoe box and your own
collected objects.

Why do you think this picture is called a “Still Life”?

What can you see?

Is this an example of OBSERVATION or IMAGINATION?
Discuss.

If you had to pair this picture with ONE other from the pack,
which ONE would you choose? Why is this?

Which other pictures are similar to this one? Give reasons for your
choices.

List objects you would put in your own personal still life
arrangement (composition) in order of importance. What does
each object represent?

Create a “Still Life in a Box” using a shoe box and your own
collected objects.

Why do you think this picture is called a “Still Life”?

What can you see?

Is this an example of OBSERVATION or IMAGINATION?
Discuss.

If you had to pair this picture with ONE other from the pack,
which ONE would you choose? Why is this?

Which other pictures are similar to this one? Give reasons for your
choices.

List objects you would put in your own personal still life
arrangement (composition) in order of importance. What does
each object represent?

Create a “Still Life in a Box” using a shoe box and your own
collected objects.

Why do you think this picture is called a “Still Life”?

What can you see?

Is this an example of OBSERVATION or IMAGINATION?
Discuss.

If you had to pair this picture with ONE other from the pack,
which ONE would you choose? Why is this?

Which other pictures are similar to this one? Give reasons for your
choices.

List objects you would put in your own personal still life
arrangement (composition) in order of importance. What does
each object represent?

Create a “Still Life in a Box” using a shoe box and your own
collected objects.

Why do you think this picture is called a “Still Life”?

What can you see?

Is this an example of OBSERVATION or IMAGINATION?
Discuss.

If you had to pair this picture with ONE other from the pack,
which ONE would you choose? Why is this?

Which other pictures are similar to this one? Give reasons for your
choices.

List objects you would put in your own personal still life
arrangement (composition) in order of importance. What does
each object represent?

Create a “Still Life in a Box” using a shoe box and your own
collected objects.

Why do you think this picture is called a “Still Life”?

What can you see?

Is this an example of OBSERVATION or IMAGINATION?
Discuss.

If you had to pair this picture with ONE other from the pack,
which ONE would you choose? Why is this?

Which other pictures are similar to this one? Give reasons for your
choices.

List objects you would put in your own personal still life
arrangement (composition) in order of importance. What does
each object represent?

Create a “Still Life in a Box” using a shoe box and your own
collected objects.

Why do you think this picture is called a “Still Life”?

What can you see?

Is this an example of OBSERVATION or IMAGINATION?
Discuss.

If you had to pair this picture with ONE other from the pack,
which ONE would you choose? Why is this?

Which other pictures are similar to this one? Give reasons for your
choices.

List objects you would put in your own personal still life
arrangement (composition) in order of importance. What does
each object represent?

Create a “Still Life in a Box” using a shoe box and your own
collected objects.

Why do you think this picture is called a “Still Life”?

What can you see?

Is this an example of OBSERVATION or IMAGINATION?
Discuss.

If you had to pair this picture with ONE other from the pack,
which ONE would you choose? Why is this?

Which other pictures are similar to this one? Give reasons for your
choices.

List objects you would put in your own personal still life
arrangement (composition) in order of importance. What does
each object represent?

Create a “Still Life in a Box” using a shoe box and your own
collected objects.

Why do you think this picture is called a “Still Life”?

What can you see?

Is this an example of OBSERVATION or IMAGINATION?
Discuss.

If you had to pair this picture with ONE other from the pack,
which ONE would you choose? Why is this?

Which other pictures are similar to this one? Give reasons for your
choices.

List objects you would put in your own personal still life
arrangement (composition) in order of importance. What does
each object represent?

Create a “Still Life in a Box” using a shoe box and your own
collected objects.

Why do you think this picture is called a “Still Life”?

What can you see?

Is this an example of OBSERVATION or IMAGINATION?
Discuss.

If you had to pair this picture with ONE other from the pack,
which ONE would you choose? Why is this?

Which other pictures are similar to this one? Give reasons for your
choices.

List objects you would put in your own personal still life
arrangement (composition) in order of importance. What does
each object represent?

Create a “Still Life in a Box” using a shoe box and your own
collected objects.

Why do you think this picture is called a “Still Life”?

What can you see?

Is this an example of OBSERVATION or IMAGINATION?
Discuss.

If you had to pair this picture with ONE other from the pack,
which ONE would you choose? Why is this?

Which other pictures are similar to this one? Give reasons for your
choices.

List objects you would put in your own personal still life
arrangement (composition) in order of importance. What does
each object represent?

Create a “Still Life in a Box” using a shoe box and your own
collected objects.

Why do you think this picture is called a “Still Life”?

What can you see?

Is this an example of OBSERVATION or IMAGINATION?
Discuss.

If you had to pair this picture with ONE other from the pack,
which ONE would you choose? Why is this?

Which other pictures are similar to this one? Give reasons for your
choices.

List objects you would put in your own personal still life
arrangement (composition) in order of importance. What does
each object represent?

Create a “Still Life in a Box” using a shoe box and your own
collected objects.

Why do you think this picture is called a “Still Life”?

What can you see?

Is this an example of OBSERVATION or IMAGINATION?
Discuss.

If you had to pair this picture with ONE other from the pack,
which ONE would you choose? Why is this?

Which other pictures are similar to this one? Give reasons for your
choices.

List objects you would put in your own personal still life
arrangement (composition) in order of importance. What does
each object represent?

Create a “Still Life in a Box” using a shoe box and your own
collected objects.

Why do you think this picture is called a “Still Life”?

What can you see?

Is this an example of OBSERVATION or IMAGINATION?
Discuss.

If you had to pair this picture with ONE other from the pack,
which ONE would you choose? Why is this?

Which other pictures are similar to this one? Give reasons for your
choices.

List objects you would put in your own personal still life
arrangement (composition) in order of importance. What does
each object represent?

Create a “Still Life in a Box” using a shoe box and your own
collected objects.

Why do you think this picture is called a “Still Life”?

What can you see?

Is this an example of OBSERVATION or IMAGINATION?
Discuss.

If you had to pair this picture with ONE other from the pack,
which ONE would you choose? Why is this?

Which other pictures are similar to this one? Give reasons for your
choices.

List objects you would put in your own personal still life
arrangement (composition) in order of importance. What does
each object represent?

Create a “Still Life in a Box” using a shoe box and your own
collected objects.

Why do you think this picture is called a “Still Life”?

What can you see?

Is this an example of OBSERVATION or IMAGINATION?
Discuss.

If you had to pair this picture with ONE other from the pack,
which ONE would you choose? Why is this?

Which other pictures are similar to this one? Give reasons for your
choices.

List objects you would put in your own personal still life
arrangement (composition) in order of importance. What does
each object represent?

Create a “Still Life in a Box” using a shoe box and your own
collected objects.

Why do you think this picture is called a “Still Life”?

What can you see?

Is this an example of OBSERVATION or IMAGINATION?
Discuss.

If you had to pair this picture with ONE other from the pack,
which ONE would you choose? Why is this?

Which other pictures are similar to this one? Give reasons for your
choices.

List objects you would put in your own personal still life
arrangement (composition) in order of importance. What does
each object represent?

Create a “Still Life in a Box” using a shoe box and your own
collected objects.

Why do you think this picture is called a “Still Life”?

What can you see?

Is this an example of OBSERVATION or IMAGINATION?
Discuss.

If you had to pair this picture with ONE other from the pack,
which ONE would you choose? Why is this?

Which other pictures are similar to this one? Give reasons for your
choices.

List objects you would put in your own personal still life
arrangement (composition) in order of importance. What does
each object represent?

Create a “Still Life in a Box” using a shoe box and your own
collected objects.

Why do you think this picture is called a “Still Life”?

What can you see?

Is this an example of OBSERVATION or IMAGINATION?
Discuss.

If you had to pair this picture with ONE other from the pack,
which ONE would you choose? Why is this?

Which other pictures are similar to this one? Give reasons for your
choices.

List objects you would put in your own personal still life
arrangement (composition) in order of importance. What does
each object represent?

Create a “Still Life in a Box” using a shoe box and your own
collected objects.

Why do you think this picture is called a “Still Life”?

What can you see?

Is this an example of OBSERVATION or IMAGINATION?
Discuss.

If you had to pair this picture with ONE other from the pack,
which ONE would you choose? Why is this?

Which other pictures are similar to this one? Give reasons for your
choices.

List objects you would put in your own personal still life
arrangement (composition) in order of importance. What does
each object represent?

Create a “Still Life in a Box” using a shoe box and your own
collected objects.

Why do you think this picture is called a “Still Life”?

What can you see?

Is this an example of OBSERVATION or IMAGINATION?
Discuss.

If you had to pair this picture with ONE other from the pack,
which ONE would you choose? Why is this?

Which other pictures are similar to this one? Give reasons for your
choices.

List objects you would put in your own personal still life
arrangement (composition) in order of importance. What does
each object represent?

Create a “Still Life in a Box” using a shoe box and your own
collected objects.

Why do you think this picture is called a “Still Life”?

What can you see?

Is this an example of OBSERVATION or IMAGINATION?
Discuss.

If you had to pair this picture with ONE other from the pack,
which ONE would you choose? Why is this?

Which other pictures are similar to this one? Give reasons for your
choices.

List objects you would put in your own personal still life
arrangement (composition) in order of importance. What does
each object represent?

Create a “Still Life in a Box” using a shoe box and your own
collected objects.

Why do you think this picture is called a “Still Life”?

What can you see?

Is this an example of OBSERVATION or IMAGINATION?
Discuss.

If you had to pair this picture with ONE other from the pack,
which ONE would you choose? Why is this?

Which other pictures are similar to this one? Give reasons for your
choices.

List objects you would put in your own personal still life
arrangement (composition) in order of importance. What does
each object represent?

Create a “Still Life in a Box” using a shoe box and your own
collected objects.

Why do you think this picture is called a “Still Life”?

What can you see?

Is this an example of OBSERVATION or IMAGINATION?
Discuss.

If you had to pair this picture with ONE other from the pack,
which ONE would you choose? Why is this?

Which other pictures are similar to this one? Give reasons for your
choices.

List objects you would put in your own personal still life
arrangement (composition) in order of importance. What does
each object represent?

Create a “Still Life in a Box” using a shoe box and your own
collected objects.